

BDO Luxembourg announces the nomination of 3 new partners

BDO in Luxembourg has the pleasure of announcing the nomination of Eric Bineau, Jan Brosius and Adina Conner as new partners as of 1st October 2022. As part of BDO Luxembourg's growth strategy, they will lead their teams in providing the highest quality services to our clients.

Eric Bineau – BDO Technology

Eric Bineau led IT projects for 15 years. He joined BDO in Luxembourg in April 2015 where he started to design and market an AML/KYC Compliance solution. He has since played a leading role in further developing BDO's range of software solutions.

Eric will strengthen our Technology Advisory activity and will be in charge of the development, promotion and marketing of these software solutions.

Jan Brosius – Accounting and Corporate Services

After starting his career at BDO, Jan gained experience as an auditor with another Luxembourg based audit firm, before (re)joining BDO in 2020 in the Accounting & Corporate Services practice, serving small, medium and large sized Luxembourg based operational companies. Jan is expert-comptable and réviseur d'entreprises.

Jan's role is to support local companies and entrepreneurs on accounting, reporting, and tax-related aspects. He is also involved in the preparation and facilitation of transferring (family) businesses.

Adina Conner – Transfer Pricing

With more than 14 years of experience in Transfer Pricing, acquired in three different European jurisdictions, Adina deals with the whole range of transfer pricing services from planning, documentation and compliance to audit defense and support. For the past 9 years Adina worked in Luxembourg where she focused on the Financial Services, Asset Management, Real Estate and Technology sectors.

In her new role, Adina will further develop our Transfer Pricing services business in Luxembourg, and will also be involved within the BDO Global Practice on Financial Transactions.
